We've Got Youngsters of Our Own

... YOU BET WE DRIVE SAFELY ... ESPECIALLY NOW THEY'RE STARTING BACK TO SCHOOL

There's no secret why we truck drivers are safe and cautious drivers. We're tested to be.

But we also have right-of-line tests about why we drive safely.

We have youngsters of our own — and we don't want them injured. As parents and drivers we know that youngsters sometimes forget. We know they sometimes run from behind parked cars into streets. We know that schoolbags multiply the need for careful driving.

We know also that motorists don't always stop or slow down coming out of side streets, and that sometimes they round blind curves on the wrong side.

With us Safety Is No Accident. It is the reward of enforcing watchfulness.

Because safety and courtesy are things we strive for, International Harvester has given us this chance to speak our little piece — as a plea for safe driving and courtesy on the streets and highways of Canada.

• MEN WITH A PURPOSE •

A man to look up to!

He's a member of aircrew in the Royal Canadian Air Force.

Months of training on some of the finest aircraft and technical equipment in the world have made him a man to be respected — a man to whom we all look for the balance and security of our Canadian skies. His job is a big one... but he'll measure up... and he'll be a proud addition to a great Air Force.

If you can meet the standards required by the R.C.A.F., you can become a pilot, radio officer or navigator.

On completion of your basic training, you'll be commissioned and appointed to the rank of Flying Officer with a total income of $254 a month. Don't wait! Find out RIGHT NOW about the thrilling future that awaits you in the service of the Royal Canadian Air Force. Write to:

But the harbor is full of shipping again and there is ready for sale new wine. The Canadians entered the city in 1944 by a secret tunnel

The Guns of Liberation Sang Marianne's First Lullaby Five Years Ago

FIVE YEARS LATER Marianne is again comforted by the former Army photographer. Now she's a smiling, happy housewife, playing in fields where little babies played five years before. Marianne's husband, a former of the French Cavalry, Normandy. Here's a lady who won't forget her Canadians.

THE NAZIS installed guns at Cap Gris Nez in blackberry like this one which was shelled by the Navy's Scapa Regatta here during the war. There were once loaded these terrible shells across a narrow Channel into French hands and ports in England.

AFTER THE GERMAN guns were moved and French families moved in to put up some curtains and make an attractive home out of what had been a war-torn pile of concrete building with long-range artillery. While in prison, however, he had Germans discussed of company.

BOCKED by heavy Allied bombs and seeking back to the Rhine, and the end of the war, the Germans were making day in for a "three" last-day, light in the trenches of the Reichswald Forest. For days the battle was fought in a patch remained of trees and the Scheldt as German paratroopers tried to hold the Canadian forces. But the 2nd Corps charged through the mud and fire-new days to victory. Now while birds sing a German mother tells of her lost son.

DUCKS WERE carrying trucks across it to the shores of our west-coast ocean back in 1918. The Canadians used them to the Rhine Scheldt among the gorges of the Scheldt Estuary when the boats of Antwerp were opened. Five out of the port was close to the Allied advance.

THIS DUCK, stored behind and became disintegrated by a coast mine at Kurella van Mer in Belgium. The engine of this town by the Canadian in November, 1918, lifted up the Prussian post. Paul Gustaf Gierling was captured here by the North Nova Scotia Highlanders.

THREE CANADIAN soldiers were joined by Ken Bell as they went down the streets of Blankenberge in Belgium in the fall of 1918. With the clearing of Antwerp the advance of the Canadians came to a visitor's hall, while planning went ahead for the final offensive.

THE SAME SCENE today is Blankenberge photographed by Ken Bell on his second tour of the Canadian battlefield at North-West Europe. In this town Bell met friends from the underground who had helped the Canadian Montgomery and the Canadian coast was an inspiration.

It was just called the Tied but today is known as Alcatraz. It is a young and vigorous township, capable of any heroic exploits.

In addition the township is a well-organized town which will have been long before this world had enough money, and now by the fact that the township was successful. The township is a well-organized township, and now by the fact that the township was successful. The township is a well-organized township, and now by the fact that the township was successful.

Although it was a time when the township was a well-organized township, and now by the fact that the township was successful. The township is a well-organized township, and now by the fact that the township was successful.

One is reminded now, but as a matter of fact, the township is a well-organized township, and now by the fact that the township was successful. The township is a well-organized township, and now by the fact that the township was successful.

MAYOR RESCUES NEIGHBOUR TRAPPED IN BLAZE WINS DOW AWARD

MAYOR "EDDIE" SARGENT

of Owen Sound, Ont.,
saves his way into burning house

Rescuing his neighbour was trapped in the burning 21½-story house, the 50-year-old Mayor Sargent climbed onto a porch roof and reached a window with his hands. The blaze of fire from inside was so intense that he was knocked off the roof as he grained. Entering by the back door he saw his neighbour on the floor. He tried to drag him out but twice the fire and smoke drove him back. On his third try the neighbour was successful in getting the smoke out of the house and the fire was out.

We recently pay tribute to the courage of Mayor "Eddie" Sargent, of Owen Sound, through the presentation of The Dow Award.

For deeds such as this, Mayor Sargent has been named one of the most courageous men in Canada.

1. An off-circuit action, Mayor Sargent was downed as he saw his neighbour trapped in the burning house. He was rescued by the fire department.

2. The time taken by the fire department to get to the house was a long one. Mayor Sargent was downed as he saw his neighbour trapped in the burning house. He was rescued by the fire department.

3. After being downed by a fire, Mayor Sargent was rescued by the fire department. He was rescued by the fire department.

THE DOW AWARD is a trophy presented for acts of outstanding courage and heroism. It is a trophy presented for acts of outstanding courage and heroism. It is a trophy presented for acts of outstanding courage and heroism.

There's room to grow in Canada Unlimited

Along the network of highways that link Canada's broad landscape safely speed mighty transports and buses laden with precious cargoes of goods and passengers. In less than 35 years, the growth of this great industry has opened the gateway of opportunity to thousands of Canadians, not only in transportation but in many subsidiary industries. It is proof that there's room to grow in Canada Unlimited.

Just how much room is told in "CANADA UNLIMITED", an illustrated 144-page book published by the O'Keefe Foundation. You may obtain your copy by sending 25c in cash (no stamps or cheques please) to "Canada Unlimited", Dept. G, O'Keefe House, Toronto, Ontario. (Please print your name and address clearly.) All monies received will be donated to the Canadian Citizenship Council.*
